A Creative Version of Psalm 51

A Psalm of David

(Mea Culpa)

- 1. Out of your merciful compassion and out of your tender mercies, O God, baptize me afresh in conscience and in spirit from the sins of adultery and murder.
- 2. Wash me, scrub me, and bleach out my heinousness crimes, my wickedness.
- 3. I know I have succumbed to the passions of lust and have committed premeditated murder. My spirit is imprisoned by prevalent guiltiness.
- 4. I have sinned against God, against God's Holy ordinances. Sinfulness is my inheritance. I am ashamed. God, you have every reason to judge and condemn me.
- 5. Even my birth was preceded by predominant sinfulness.
- 6. God, you desire to infuse my being, my very soul with wisdom.
- 7. Cleanse me. Purify me whiter than new fallen snow.
- 8. I plead with you, O God, to know your ecstasy. Heal my broken bones.
- 9. Do not identify my most grievous sins as heralds of eternal damnation.
- 10. Cleanse me from all evil. Create in me a clean heart. Renew my soul.
- 11. Do not deny me your presence. Imbue me with your Holy Spirit.
- 12. Grant me new life. I shall become an example of God's grace-filled spirit.
- 13. I shall be your messenger to instruct others to obey your commandments. They, too, will become your disciples.
- 14. Remove from my inmost being my guiltiness, and I shall be an instrument of your peace.
- 15. Help me speak your truths and proclaim the glories of your creation.
- 16. You spurn sacrifices and burnt offerings.
- 17. My sacrifices to you are a subdued spirit; an obedient and contrite heart for your acceptance.
- 18. O God, I plead with you to be compassionate toward Israel, and help her build your New Jerusalem.
- 19. It is then, O God, that you will be pleased with our symbolic offerings, sacrifices and oblations as we tender them to your glory.
